1.1	ANDUM: JUNE EXAMINATION: 2018 ehension (Text 1)	Mark
	True	1
1.2	True 🗸	1
1.3	False	1
1.4	16°C✓ →27°C✓	2
1.5	Cape Town✓ or Cape Agulhas	1
1.6	fore / for	1
1.7	meteorologists	1
1.8	(i) thermometers
	(ii) barometers	4
	(iii) rain gauges✓
	(iv) anemometers ✓
1.0	Voc/Net/ Both are correct only if a learner provided a relevant supporting	2
1.9	Yes/No ✓ Both are correct only if a learner provided a relevant supporting statement. ✓	Z
		14
Question	TOTAL: SECTION A:	Mark
Question	Section B: Comprehension (Text 2)
1	Any suitable title	1
2	At night. ✓ " he lay and waited on the back of his bakkie and watched by the light	2
	of the moon."	2
3	Winter time	1
4	*Potatoes; * Mealies *millet (Any 2) 🗸 🗸	2
5	enormous	1
6	six	1
7	Yes / No and reason relevant to the text 🗸 🗸	2
8	Any relevant/reasonable answer. What learner would have done in the same situation as farmer John	1
• • •	TOTAL: SECTION B:	11
Question
	Section C: Language (Text 3)	Mark
1	a. Subject : My father	Mark
1	a. Subject : My father Predicate: tried to follow the river bank	2
1 2	a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could.
1	a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises.	2
1 2 3	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. 	2
1 2	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. 	2 1 2
1 2 3	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. 	2
1 2 3 4	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. 	2 1 2
1 2 3	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. 	2 1 2
1 2 3 4	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you 	2 1 2
1 2 3 4	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." 	2 1 2 3
1 2 3 4	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." c. When it was almost as deep as his boot tops he got stuck in the oozy, mucky ✓ 	2 1 2
1 2 3 4 5	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." c. When it was almost as deep as his boot tops he got stuck in the oozy, mucky ✓ mud. 	2 1 2 3
1 2 3 4	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." c. When it was almost as deep as his boot tops he got stuck in the oozy, mucky ✓ mud. a. My father hesitated ✓ to leave the beach. 	2 1 2 3 3
1 2 3 4 5 6	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." c. When it was almost as deep as his boot tops he got stuck in the oozy, mucky ✓ mud. a. My father hesitated ✓ to leave the beach. b. He ate ✓ three bananas as he put on his rubber boots. 	2 1 2 3 3
1 2 3 4 5	 a. Subject : My father ✓ Predicate: tried to follow the river bank ✓ They all unwrapped their pieces and began to chew ✓ as hard as they could. a. He was beginning ✓ to hear whispery noises. b. He was trying ✓ to run, but it was too late. a. Not one explorer has ✓ ever left this island alive. b. Father is ✓ going to be thinking of tigers for the rest of his life. c. Father doesn't ✓ always run away from tigers. a. "This is very special ✓ chewing gum," said my father. b. "If you keep on chewing it long enough it will turn bright ✓ green, and then if you plant it, it will grow more chewing gum." c. When it was almost as deep as his boot tops he got stuck in the oozy, mucky ✓ mud. a. My father hesitated ✓ to leave the beach. 	2 1 2 3